FAQs

Financial aid: Applicants admitted to masters’ programs are eligible for merit scholarships in the form of a tuition discount that applies for the duration of the program as long as recipients maintain academic standing. All applicants are considered for merit scholarships at the time of admission.

Application Deadlines

• Fall Term
  June 15: Master’s applicants (international)
  August 15: Master’s and Certificate applicants (non-international)
• Spring Term
  October 1: Master’s applicants (international)
  December 15: Master’s and Certificate applicants (non-international)
• Summer 1 Term
  April 15: All School of Public Policy and Urban Affairs programs, except PhD Public Policy and MA International Affairs (non-international)

Required Materials:

• Application Fee ($75)
• Personal Statement
• Unofficial transcripts from all institutions attended
• 3 Recommendation Letters
• Resume
• For international applicants: Proof of degree earned at U.S. institution or TOEFL, IELTS or PTE exam
• GRE not required for masters’ programs, required for PhD

2019-2020 Tuition: $1,250 per credit hour not including student fees