

KNOW YOUR IX+1

10 Facts About Title IX

I

IT'S NOT JUST ABOUT SPORTS

Title IX is the landmark 1972 federal civil rights law that prohibits sex discrimination in education.

VI

A PLAN FOR SAFETY

Students who experience sexual violence have a right to referrals to counseling on and off campus, relocation to a different residence hall, and a change in academic schedule.

II

IT'S NOT JUST ABOUT FEMALES

Male and gender nonconforming students are also protected under Title IX.

NO CONTACT ORDERS

Northeastern can issue a no-contact order throughout the conduct process and afterwards as appropriate.

III

SEXUAL VIOLENCE IS NOT TOLERATED

Sexual violence is not tolerated at Northeastern. Incidents of sexual violence should be reported to Northeastern Public Safety Division (NUPD) or Office of Institutional Diversity and Inclusion (OIDI).

VIII

CONDUCT HEARINGS

All OSCCR cases are treated confidentially and an informational meeting with OSCCR staff is available to discuss any complaint.

IV

NORTHEASTERN IS PROACTIVE

Northeastern is proactive in making the campus safe and free of sex discrimination and sexual violence.

IX

RETALIATION IS PROHIBITED

Any intentional or attempted act against a person who in good faith makes a report, serves as a witness or participated in an investigation or hearing is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct.

V

NORTHEASTERN HAS SYSTEMS IN PLACE

The policy and procedure for handling cases of sexual violence are outlined in the Code of Student Conduct and the Title IX Policy.
