Photographer Saskia Keeley shares the results of her photography workshops that allow Israeli and Palestinian women to discover interconnectivity, respect, and empathy through the use of cameras. The lecture is illustrated with both the photographs taken and the voices of the participants.

Beyond Sides
Towards Reconciliation:
Israeli and Palestinian Women

Tuesday April 16, 2019
12:00 - 1:30 pm
Snell Library 037

Sponsored by the Jewish Studies Program, Middle East Studies Program, Middle East Center, International Affairs Program, Center for International Affairs & World Cultures

For more information, contact: d.levisohn@northeastern.edu