Administrative Experience

Chair, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Northeastern University, July 2008-2011; renewed for second term, 2011-2014.

Achievements: Led growth of department's tenured/tenure-track faculty. 12 t/t faculty added since 2008, including many senior interdisciplinary hires. Systematized graduate education, enhancing graduate admissions and placements. Achieved substantial increases in externally funded research. Led the effort to introduce two new, interdisciplinary Master's programs (one in International Studies and another in Environmental Science and Policy). Carried out departmental review of undergraduate programs.

Chair, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, George Mason University, two terms (2003-2008). Led faculty recruitment efforts (10 hires in 5 years). Introduced a new Ph.D. program in Public and Applied Sociology, approved in 2007.

Founding Director, Center for Social Science Research, (www.cssr.gmu.edu) 2004-2008. Developed small teaching laboratory into an interdepartmental research center. Established substantive areas reflecting the expertise of faculty affiliates; secured grants and contracts for Center research; built computer assisted telephone interviewing (CATI) platform; hired research staff and graduate student personnel; established interdepartmental steering committee and colloquia; begun small grant programs for faculty and graduate students.

Associate Director for Research, Sloan Industry Center for Paper Business and Industry Studies, 1999-2001: Administered a Sloan-funded research program, with responsibility for 21 funded research projects on social, environmental and technical projects of importance to the forest products industry. Continued as consultant, 2002-2003.
