Faculty Advising

• Located in the department of your major

• Major specific questions:
  • Philosophy of the curriculum
  • What specific courses entail
  • Experiential learning opportunities such as research and Dialogues of Civilizations

• Mentor for students
  • Graduate school questions
  • Career path advice
Co-op Coordinators

• Work closely with students to guide them through all phases of the co-op process for each co-op cycle
  o Teach co-op prep course to aid preparation and transition to co-op
  o Work with students on resumes, professionalism, and interviewing skills
  o Offer input on co-op jobs in line with their academic, personal, and career goals
  o Guide students in making connections and reflecting on work experience in the context of academic work and goals

• Provide professional mentoring to students throughout their time at Northeastern
Co-op Timeline

First Year
- Take foundation classes in major
- Build resume through volunteer work, internships, part-time jobs, student activities, NUterm courses or Dialogue

Second Year
- Take the co-op preparation course either first or second semester of second year
- During the class begin searching, applying, and interviewing for co-op jobs for the next semester

2 six-month co-op cycles: January-June (Spring and Summer 1) and July-December (Summer 2 and Fall)

The option for 4 year/2 co-op, or 5 year/3 co-op, or 1 or no co-op is your choice, but planning is required.
Office of Career Development

- Ranked #1 or #2 by the Princeton Review consistently since 2011

- Provides resources, guidance and opportunities which help students to:
  - Choose a major and explore career options
  - Make career decisions that will engage them in productive and fulfilling work
  - Prepare for and conduct successful job and internship searches
  - Create meaningful and effective engagement with employers
  - Contribute to meeting global and societal needs

- Schedule appointments via MyNortheastern
- careerservices@neu.edu

Degree Requirements: A Brief Overview

- Residency Requirement: A minimum of 64 semester hours at NU are required to earn a bachelor’s degree.
- NUpath: NUpath courses may also count as major requirements.
- Electives: Remaining classes needed to meet minimum hours for graduation.
- Major Requirements: Specific to your department.
- Double and Combined Majors/Minors: 128 Semester Hours.
Your Degree Audit (DARS)

- Highlights all major and NUpath requirements
- Reflects progress towards your degree and program
- Records all transfer and AP/IB/GCE credits
- Helps you choose and track courses every semester
AP, IB, and GCE Credit on Your Audit

- Advanced Placement (AP)
  - Northeastern accepts scores of 4 or 5 on AP exams for credit

- International Baccalaureate (IB)
  - Northeastern accepts scores of 5, 6, or 7 on Higher Level exams only for credit (except for Standard Level Further Mathematics)

- General Certificate of Education (GCE)
  - A-levels: “C” or better for credit
  - AS-levels: “C” or better for credit
  - No credit granted for O-levels

- C or better required to transfer credit from accredited academic institution
Transfer and Advanced Credit

You should not enroll in any course for which transfer or AP or IB or GCE credit has been or may be granted.

You have one academic semester to finalize all previous transfer and AP/IB/GCE coursework on your NU record.

Note: AP Scores must come directly from CollegeBoard.com.

All final transcripts and/or score reports not yet submitted should be sent to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Mailing info can be found on their website under the FAQs tab.

Course descriptions and syllabi can be emailed to: transfercredit@neu.edu

- Language Placement Exam
  - Online for French, Spanish, and German
  - In person or over the phone assessment for all other languages
  - If registering for language in spring 2017, the placement exam should have been completed prior to orientation
Do NOT make changes to your spring 2018 schedule without consulting your Academic Advisor!
In the days preceding the start of the semester you’ll be prompted to do “I AM HERE” to confirm your plans to attend NU that term. If you do not complete I AM HERE, you will have your schedule purged.

When you log into myNEU during I AM HERE, you’ll be prompted to complete it right away. Click “Review/Confirm Class Schedule” to get started.

Once you complete I AM HERE, log out of myNEU and wait a minute in order for your other tabs to be restored.

How will you #BeYOUatNU?

“I don’t want you to fit into a mold that I create. I want you to create your own journey.”

Joseph E. Aoun, President, Northeastern University

No two students are the same; their paths shouldn’t be either. Each journey is unique—just like you—and we look forward to supporting you on your Northeastern adventure.

Orientation is just the beginning. As you prepare to forge this new path, think about where you’ve come from, where you’re headed, and how we can help you get there.

Wear the T-shirt to the CSSH Dean’s Welcome Lunch on January 10, complete with the word that best describes how you will #BeYOUatNU in the years to come.
